

Governance Summary

A concise public-information summary based on the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland record for West Bann Development (charity no. 101549). This is not a copy of the charity's legal governing document. The regulator identifies that document as the organisation's Memorandum and Articles.

Registered charity	West Bann Development - Charity no. 101549
Other name	West Bann Development Ltd
Governing document	Memorandum and Articles
Area served	Causeway Coast and Glens area and environs

Charitable purposes

The public register describes West Bann Development's purposes as promoting the benefit of people in the Causeway Coast and Glens area. Its stated purposes include advancing education through community education and vocational training; promoting health and wellbeing; relieving need connected with age, ill-health, disability or disadvantage; relieving unemployment and poverty through training, employment opportunities and incubation business units; and promoting community development through facilities, cooperation, early-years services, and activities that foster good community relations and social cohesion.

Trustee board

✓ Bernie Cosgrove	✓ Columb Henry
✓ Nuala Hollinger	✓ Patrick Mcfeely
✓ Tony Fisher	✓ Mr Kevin Mcwilliams
✓ Mr John Raymond Pollock	✓ Mr John Joseph Boyle

What governance means here

The Charity Commission describes a governing document as the formal document that sets out a charity's purposes and usually how it will be run. For a charitable company, articles of association typically define its purposes and organisational rules, including matters such as directors and financial records. For West Bann Development, the public register specifically records the governing document type as Memorandum and Articles.

Public contact details

Address: West Bann Development, 8 Killowen Court, Coleraine, County Londonderry, BT51 3TP

Telephone: 028 7032 7859

Email: info@westbann.com

Website: www.westbann.com

Source note

Prepared from the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland public charity record for West Bann Development (charity no. 101549), accessed October 2026, together with the Commission's published explanation of governing documents. This summary is suitable as an informational handout or website download, but it should not be presented as the organisation's official Memorandum and Articles. A true copy of that legal document should be obtained from West Bann Development, the regulator, or the relevant corporate filing record.